Dear Brethren,

Yesterday I preached for the first time in over a year. And it was wonderful!

I have been teaching the Sunday morning Bible class in Eshowe. I have really enjoyed that, but that means I can't make Sunday morning trips to other congregations in order to preach.

But Rob Buchanan preached a weekend meeting in Eshowe, and he took the Bible class time for his lessons. That gave me the opportunity to go to Richards Bay. And it was wonderful.

I was so excited that I couldn't sleep Saturday night. Then Zipho took me in our car on the 1 ½ hr trip to the town of Richards Bay. On the way we had a good breakfast at Wimpy restaurant, and we found the very nice auditorium at the library all prepared for worship.

This is a fairly new congregation begun by faithful brethren who objected to the teaching of the preacher of the church in rural Empangeni—on several issues. I was very favorably impressed by the brethren, and I thoroughly enjoyed being with them.

During the Bible class period I preached from Acts 20:38. Then during the worship time, I talked about John 3:16.

Zipho was a very big help to me, and all the brethren were very kind. It was a wonderful day.

Continue to pray for us, brethren. Your love means a great deal to us.

In Christ,

Paul K. Williams
